

HESTON LEE

Heston's music journey began 25 years ago in 1999, when he was gifted a Spanish guitar. He taught himself to play from a book and moved to Berlin where he performed for the first time in public at an open mic night. A local producer was in the audience and offered Heston free studio time. After recording 15 demos, he returned to the UK and started a band 'The Deep South Project'. They gigged at The Troubadour Club, Dublin Castle, 02 Islington, The Bedford, and other iconic venues before going separate ways.' Heston then decided to focus on his solo career. In 2018, he met Martin Youth Glover (The Fireman, McCartney, Killing Joke) in a cafe. They stayed in contact and 4 years later Glover produced Hestons debut album. "Farewell My Love" (released 2024) with Youth adding Bass parts. Youth also stars in the 'Oh Biddy' music video filmed at Mini Hollywood.
